

Institute of Supply Management, August 2011 Report:

"The Institute for Supply Management said the service sector grew at a faster pace in August than in July. ISM's nonmanufacturing index increased from July's 52.7 to 53.3. Economists expected the index to decline. Any number over 50 means the sector is in expansion."