

DAVID CAMPBELL

CAMPBELL, DAVID 49, of Carrollton, Texas. Dave died unexpectedly while whitewater rafting on July 9, 2009. He is survived by his loving wife of 24 years, Lynda, and his greatest treasures, sons Matt and Connor. Other survivors include his mother, Marlene Campbell; brothers John and Paul and their families. He is preceded in death by his father, William Campbell and his grandparents. David was born March 11, 1960 in San Antonio, TX. He graduated from Richardson High School and Texas Tech University. Most of his working career was in the plumbing wholesale business, but of late had been employed with Dillard Associates. He was an active member of All Saints Catholic Church. Dave was very involved with Boy Scout Troop 114 and was an instrumental part of the Hebron High School Football Booster Club. Dave will be missed most of all for his contagious good humor throughout life. A celebration of Dave's life will take place during a vigil at All Saints Catholic Church on July 14 at 7 pm. The family asks that you wear your favorite Hawaiian, Texas Tech or Hebron attire. Formal funeral services will be on July 15, 2009 at 2pm at All Saints Catholic Church. Memorials may be made to the Campbell Children Education Fund c/o Kelly Campbell 10140 Estate Lane Dallas, TX 75238.
